

QUICK
NEWSNEEDY STUDENTS GET HELP FROM FULLMARK

COMPUTER supplies manufacturer Fullmark is aiming to raise $100,000 for needy children in schools.

It will do this by donating 1,000 correction tapes to each of 100 schools by the end of this month, for them to be sold at $1 each – 80 cents less than the commercial rate.

All proceeds will go towards aiding disadvantaged children.

PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE
GETS $380,000 BOOST

A CHARITY golf tournament for the President's Challenge held at the Raffles Country Club yesterday raised $350,000.

Two pieces of calligraphy, donated by President S R Nathan that fetched an additional $30,000, raised the total to $380,000. The event was organised by the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

The money will be donated to the President's Challenge fund which will then distribute it to various social service organisations such as Action for Aids, Singapore and Handicaps Welfare Association.

Three ministers – Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Home Affairs Wong Kan Seng; National Development Minister Mah Bow Tan; and Minister for Community Development, Youth and Sports and Second Minister for Information, Communication and the Arts Dr Vivian Balakrishnan – participated in the golf game.

$600,000 RAISED TO HELP NUH PATIENTS

THE "Future of Medicine" Charity Golf, held at the Tanah Merah Country Club yesterday, raised $600,000 for the NUH Patientcare Charity Fund.

Minister for Education and Second Minister for Finance Tharman Shanmugaratnam joined donors out on the green for a friendly game.

The event's Special Major Donor, Kwan Im Thong Hood Cho Temple, gave $400,000.

Contributions will be used to help needy patients at the National University Hospital who require life-saving treatment and surgery, assistive equipment, non-standard medication and step-down care.
